LATE FUTURITY NOTIONS.

There isn't much gossip from the East about the Futurity which is only a few days off. It is by far the noblest two-year-old stake in America and run at Sheephead Bay next Tuesday. From private sources DAILY RACING FORM gleams the information that Lydian of the Preakness Stable, a more than good individual by Linden—Merri, will start. He is considered to have a good chance. Lydian won his first race in fine style but was beaten by less than Futurity quality Monday at Saratoga. He has been sick however, and though Gibraltar beat the colt, his race was by no means bad.

There is little or no news about Recreation, a filly of the highest class. The Burns & Waterhouse filly was very ill after her trip from California and is said to be in such condition that a Futurity start is improbable. Jim McCormick is not a man to show his cards, and if he starts Recreation her chance is second to none. Rey El Salto, of the Baldwin stable, is likely to be a starter. So are Dave Gideon's Frohman, Jack McDonald's Central Trust and Gibraltar and The Huguenot—Henry of Navarre's brother—from the Thompson stable. Marcus Daly is likely to send a pair to the post. His best will be Grand Sachem, a royally bred and grand looking colt. Briar Sweet—Dr. Hasbrouck's sister—is also engaged in the stake. Mike Dwyer is credited with designs on the prize through Previous, a colt of power and class. He is worth some consideration. So is Murillo, John G. Follansbee's Morello—Snow Drop colt.

The Keene stable is likely to be represented by Uriel and Cock Robin, and Oliver H. Belmont is reasonably credited with considering that he has a chance through Great Bend, a good colt. Brown Dick is nearly sure to start Plaudit, the half brother to Hastings and Handsome, winner of the Emerald Stakes at Oakley. The Futurity's favorite will undoubtedly be John Madden's Howland, the Hindoo—Ricochet colt that has performed so well, but was beaten by Bannockburn and Bangle—less than first class colts—for the Louisville Futurity. Benares, the Hindoo—Dione colt, is likely to go with Howland in the Madden cherry colors. While Howland is the natural favorite, he is by no means a surety. Hamburg is undoubtedly a far better colt than Howland. But he is not in the Futurity. Recreation, as good as she was in California, would have a royal chance to beat Howland. Previous too is far from an improbability as against him. If Lydian is as good as reports declare, he may take Howland's measure.

Grand Sachem deserves some consideration. He wasn't beaten in his Montana races. Neither was Ogden last year. Tammany Hall II was also unbeaten until yesterday at Saratoga. All in all the promise is for a good field and an open contest about the futurity. The 1897 Futurity is the tenth of the series and with 15 starters will be worth about $45,000. There will hardly be more than ten starters and the stake will probably be worth about $42,000.

The estimated starters are as follows: D. Gideon's Frohman, 118; O. H. P. Belmont's Great Bend, 118; L. S. & W. P. Thompson's The Huguenot, 118; J. G. Follansbee's Lydian, 118; E. J. Baldwin's Rey el Salto, 118; E. D. Brown's Plaudit, 118; M. F. Dwyer's Previous, 118; J. E. Madden's Howland, 115; James R. Keene's Uriel, 115; J. E. McDonald's Central Trust, 115; Hayman & Frank's Demagogue, 115; M. Daly's Tammany Hall II, 113; J. G. Follansbee's Murillo, 113; D. T. Pulsifer's Miss Tenny, 110; A. Belmont's Songster, 108; J. J. McCafferty's Gala Day, 108; H. T. Griffin's Hindoonet, 108.

HARLEM'S HANDSOME RACING.

There was a ladies' session at Harlem Wednesday. Then, too, there was an attractive program and fully 6000 people out. The racing was close and exciting and the ring's action against its denizens and in favor of the public. Four favorites won. The two that were beaten should have been beaten.

That underrated but extremely fast horse Botanic gave a sample of his quality in the second race. Botanic's win was in the second race, a three-quarter selling dash, under Barney Schreiber's clever lightweight, Woods. The Dutchman bet heavily on the Perkins colt. Woods got him away well and placing him behind Uccas and Bill Arnett to the stretch came on at his leisure in the straight and won with a lot to spare in the fast time of 1:13.

The racing feature of the afternoon came out of the fifth event—a five furlong scramble for two-year-olds. Sorrow and Pearl were equal favorites, around 2 to 1, and the public played only the pair. It neglected that fast colt, Tom Collins. He proved a dangerous factor, and after leading all the way was beaten only by a nose after a rousing finish by Sorrow.

Master Woods piloted Sorrow and his ride was an artistic one. He waited long and patiently with the Faustus filly. His run was well timed. It was a popular victory and both the boy and the filly were warmly applauded when they came to weigh in.

Another close finish came out of the eight-and-one-half furlong race. Serena was favorite but she cut little figure in the contest. Swordsman was a sharp pacemaker. Three hundred yards from the finish Roger B challenged Swordsman. The pair fought it out to the end and Roger B won and tipped over all the form players. It was shockingly out of line. Col. Clark was much surprised at the sudden awakening and an investigation is brewing.

The first race for maiden two-year-olds was an easy thing for the favorite Shipman.

There was nothing to the hurdle race but Uncle Jim after Phil Becker had fallen, and Duois won rather handily on the end from Byron McClelland.

WEDNESDAY'S MONTANA RACING.

BUTTE, Mont., Aug. 18.—Wednesday's weather and track were perfect, the crowd large and betting very heavy. The results were:

2:40 class, trotting—Golden Star won both heats. Time, 2:21, 2:19.

2:21 class, trotting—May B won both heats. Time, 2:14, 2:14.

Northwestern Handicap, 2-year-olds, 6 furlongs, running—Negligence, 105 (Frawley), won; Mayberry, second; Carness, third. Time, 1:16.

7 furlongs, running—Lena, 100 (Brown), won; Daylight, second; Alahabad, third. Time, 1:30.

5 furlongs, running—Howard, 100 (Glover), won; Jim Bozemaw, second; Polish, third. Time, 1:16.

5 furlongs, running—Three, 99 (Wilson), won; Hannah B, second; Fairchild, third. Time, 1:05.

Another great sale at Harlem. A notable sale will be held Saturday in the Harlem track paddock, under the management of Woodard & Shanklin, of Lexington, Ky. From H. E. Leigh's La Belle Stud come a lot of yearlings of the choicest strains of blood and from the Leigh stable nine horses in training: Preston, Rewarder, Arezzo, Susana, Bonito, Tom Toher, Borden, Shine and Lucayne.

The entire string of the Elkon Stock Farm is also to be sold. In the lot are such good ones as Thurston, Freeland's full brother, Indra, Presbyterian, Our Gertie, Lillian M. Ben Van, Darechota, Ike Jones, Little Singer and George B.

Time, 19, 38 1/2, 50 1/2, 1:12, 1:24, 1:45 1/2, 1:52 1/2.
Winner—B. c. by Fitz James—Nonage.
Start straggling. Won easily. Talisman is a sluggish colt and requires vigorous riding. He is at home in sloppy going too and was probably the best, although Nay Nay was nearly left and made up an immense lot of ground. She finished very strong. Scarborough abhors mud. He slipped badly, ran very well for part of the way and was eased at the end. He will do on a fast track. Winged Foot is of no present account. Was pulled up last quarter. Bastion showed speed but quit badly. He probably dislikes mud too.

759 SECOND RACE—5-8 Mile. $400 added. 2-year-olds. Maidens. Allowances.

Time, 13, 25, 37 1/2, 51 1/2, 1:05 1/2.
Winner—B. c. by Sir Mordred—Nonage.
Start straggling. Won easily. Junior was best. He likes a sprinting distance and revels over a sloppy track. Isen finished strong. Beckman ran an impressive race under bad management. Black Dude is still short. He favors mud and was weakly handled. Carbineer favors such a going and ran a much improved race. Watch him. He is a fine looker. His Majesty was badly messed about at the start. Acre and First Fruit showed speed. Domestic had no chance at the start and acted as if lifeless at the post and throughout. Bushnell was practically left. Scratched—Pink Chambray, 102; Artist Love, 102; Want, 102; Joe Anderson, 105.
Overweights—Junior, 1 pound; Gov. Bushnell, 1; Beckman, 1; Black Dude, 5; Pongus, 4.

Scratched—Skate, 108; Song and Dance, 108; Nana H, 96; The Swain, 111; Cleophus, 108; Wolhurst, 98.

Time, 12 1/2, 24, 36 1/2, 49 1/2, 1:15 1/2.
Winner—Br. g. 5, by Himyar—Violet.
Start good. Won pulled up. Reed outclassed his field. Tripping was plastered with mud first part, took the long route and finished strong. She ran a splendid race. Zanone was off in front and hung on gamely throughout. Yemen ran indifferently because of the class opposed. He is of no account when horses can outrun him. He must be able to outrun his field. The same applies to Tremargo, who was off badly and could never get up. Kaiser was pulled up last furlong. Gitty ran well, but she belongs elsewhere. Watch her. She was badly handled.
Scratched—Discount, 116; Friendship, 104; Eton Jacket, 97; Miss Lynah, 108; Her Own, 94.

762 FIFTH RACE—5-8 Mile. $500 added. 2-year-olds. Allowances.

667	ORTOLAN	90	7	8	8	8	8		O'Connor	W. C. Daly	30	50	20	40

Time, 12 1/2, 24 1/2, 37 1/2, 50, 1:03.
Winner—B. c. by Salvador—Bavaria.
Start good. Won easily. Salabar liked the going, was finely handled and was best at all stages. Fonsovannah was bothered and pocketed on the back stretch, pulled out from rail at the half, went around his field and finished like a lion although swerving under the whip. Keene could not concede the weight in the mud. He ran a grand race, however, and was a pulled up third. Benares lost ground at the start, ran resolutely all the way, and was improving his position. Danforth liked the going. Demagogue was short and slow in moving off. Pontet Canet and Ortolan were outclassed, but if not had no chance with jockeys.
Scratched—Uriel, 121; Decanter, 95.
Overweights—Pontet Canet, 4 pounds.

Start good. Won easily. Souffle outclassed her field in the going. Dr. Sheppard ran his usual game race. Quick stumbled on the first turn, yet he ran a good race. Albert S showed much speed, but was outclassed. Beaufort had no chance with his boy. He requires a strong rider. The same applies to Savarin. Volley, as usual, was running fast the last quarter.

Start fair. Won easily; second handily. Spanish Princess stopped to nothing in the final furlong. Ham was hard at work on Midian all through the stretch. Ionia ran a fair race. Merlin came with much strength at the end. He ran a good race from where he got off. Jayhawker outbroke the others, but seemed to get tangled up.

Winner—Ch. c, by Favor—Martha Burch.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; next four driving hard. Shipman was the best. He got off poorly but quickly went to the front. He is a good colt and can beat better ones. Bob Garnet acted better at the post and ran a fair race. He was under a drive the last quarter. Cutter had clear sailing and did well. Joe Shelby was high in flesh and acted green. He will bear watching. Prince Florist was much used at the post. He ran away about three furlongs in false breakaways. It was reported that The Ace had outworked Dr. Sharp. On this he was made the opening favorite. He is a good looker and should race well. He shied some at the machine and also darted out at the head of the stretch carrying Raymond F with him.

Post 15 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second, third and fourth driving hard. Botanic was a great deal the best. He has been underrated. The race today is not his true value either. Little Woods rides him to perfection. He simply galloped in behind the leaders until the stretch was reached and then came on leisurely. Floreanna ran a good race. It was form, too. Uncas got away running, but was killed off by Bill Arnett. The latter is real fast, but has no heart. Watch Mamie Callan. She ran a sparkling race. Vitrola was interfered with on the far turn and finished strong. Watch Ondina. She took the longest route. Bill Arnett had a lot of early speed.

Post 4 minutes. Start perfect. The first three were driving hard. Roger B was the best and his race a startling reversal of form. The judges questioned Magnusson about Roger B's last race. It certainly was a bad one. Swordsman was under a double whip all the way. He should have been allowed to go on after the half mile. Serena had a rough journey. She was interfered with and knocked off her stride on the far turn. Red too had many excuses. The ride on him was vile. Hessville did well as far as he went. Gray Dog showed considerable speed early, but sulked after going about seven furlongs. Dockstader's legs hurt him and he propped most of the way. Two books were made. Olivia L figured in the first. She had run away two miles Tuesday night while at work. Col. Clark heard of this and ordered the filly scratched. Bets were declared off.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; Uncle Jim likes weight off. Johnson rode a good race on him, too. Bob Lee fouled well and had a lot of speed, but was raced off his feet the first three-quarters. Phil Becker was running easily when he fell. The chances are that he would have won.

Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won in the hardest kind of a drive; second, third and fourth also hard at it. Sorrow was best and best ridden. Woods waited with her and let Tom Collins come back. The latter was ridden into the ground the first half. It was a clicking contest the last sixteen. Pearl ran a good race. She was outrun the first part of it and finished very strong. She likes a route and is an honest filly. Miss C ran right to the notch. The other two were outclassed.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won mildly driven; second, third and fourth doing their best. Dunois ran a game race and Burns took a long chance to get through with him on the back stretch. Byron McClelland is a coward. He went all to pieces when Dunois got to him in the stretch. He also has the bad habit of bearing in and consequently skinned the rails all the way. Simmons went to the post a trifle lame but ran an honest race. It was practically a two horse race. La Princessa was shut off on first turn and could never get through. Asaph had a lot of early speed.

Time, 25, 50 1/2, 1:17.
Winner—Ch. h, 5 by Wagner—Mamie Cole.
Post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving hard; second almost as hard. Elsie Barnes was always outrun. She has not been out for a month and runs better after a race or two. Shield bearer had the foot of his party but was stopping to a walk at the finish. King Oscar's saddle girth broke and he was eased up.
Scratched—Denial, 82; Lon Martin, 99; Cousin Lizzie, 82; Liebe Rose, 82; Nick Carter, 100.
Overweights—Gladys II, 5 pounds; Elsie Barnes, 3 1/2; Rosny, 5.

Time, 7 1/4, 32 1/4, 5 1/4, 1:24, 1:44, 1:50 1/2.
Winner—Ch. g, 5, by Algerine—Nellie Ransom.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; second hard driven. It was a false result. Ransom slipped through next to the rail and just lasted long enough to win. The route was too far for Silver Set. The deep track did not help Forsythe, who tired and quit in front. Belvadell was shut off on the first turn. He closed strong. The soft track helped Ransom.
Scratched—Squire G, 104.
Overweights—Can Galop, 2 pounds; Silver Set, 3; Belvadell, 2.

Time, 19 1/4, 44, 1:04.
Winner—Ch. f, by Locohatchee—Frederica.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. The heavy going was the excuse for Eva Rice. Xalissa at the weight was the best. Eva Rice was in a good position all the way and had no reason for her dull race. Free Lady is partial to light weight. Dave Waldo is not game. The rest were outclassed.
Scratched—Libation, 100; Decapo, 98; Belle of Memphis, 110; Loving Cup, 105.
Overweights—Ups and Downs, 3 pounds.

Winner—B. c, 3, by Wood Moss—Lady Kelley.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second cleverly. Basquil was the best. Murphy rode a patient race on him too. Amber Glints fell on the first turn and Judge Steadman stumbled over him. The latter was never a contender after that. Inspire tired at the end.
Scratched—Stella B, 88; Truxillo, 107; Minerva, 97; Hash, 105.
Overweights—Amber Glints, 5 pounds.
